

The Implementing Regulation of the Law 6343

Section 10: Penalties

1. Written warning
2. Fine
3. Prohibition from execution (from 15 days to 6 months)

Written Warning

- This is to inform the veterinarian or the persons within the scope of this Regulation in writing that he / she should have more regular attitude and behavior when applying his / her profession and in his / her relations with his / her colleagues.
- The acts and conditions requiring written warning are indicated in 28 Articles in the Regulation (Articles 116 – 3(a) 1-28).

Fine

- Acts and circumstances that require the fine are indicated in 19 Articles in the Regulation (Articles 116 – 3(b) 1-19).
- XX Both written warning and fine penalties are imposed by the disciplinary committees of the chambers and if there is no objection, it is executed immediately.
- If there is objection, this case will be the subject of the High Council of Honour of the TVMA and is re-evaluated then finalized.
- Acts and situations requiring prohibition from execution (from 15 days to 6 months) are directly evaluated by the High Council of Honour and finalized.

Acts and situations requiring prohibition from execution (from 15 days to 6 months)

- 1) To perform his profession without being registered to the chamber of the region where he works
- 2) Deliberately do improper treatment or cause economic loss
- 3) Not to inform animal diseases which he has to report to related authorities
- 4) Failure to comply with rules to combat epidemics
- 5) To participate in animal torture or abuse
- 6) Not to do responsibilities related to the production, protection and consumption of animal origin foods which threatening human health